EXECUTION DAY IS SET!

For Ira Green and William Dillen.

AND TUESDAY MAY 9th

Has Been Fixed by Governor Pennypacker for the Hanging of the Turnkey's Slayers—Prisoners Much Affected.

WILL APPEAL TO THE PARDON BOARD

Sheriff Hugh S. Taylor Saturday evening received from the Governor the death warrants of Ira Green and William Dillon murderers of Turnkey Jerry Condo. The date of execution was fixed for May 9, and at 11 o'clock Monday morning, in the presence of two witnesses, the instruments of death were read separately to the two men, who still have hopes that the Board of Pardons will interfere in their behalf.

Green heard the reading of the warrant with indifference and at its conclusion, when the sheriff told him that his time was short and he had better make preparations to meet his fate, replied:

"Oh, that's all right; I'm ready any time."

When the Sheriff with his witnesses, went to Dillon's cell Green called across the corridor:

"There comes the Sheriff with your death warrant, Dillon, stand up and take your medicine as I did."

Dillon heard his warrant read quietly standing with his pipe in his mouth, calmly smoking. When then Sheriff told him to make preparations to meet his fate Dillon merely bowed his head in acquiescence. Both the condemned men have decorated their cells gaudily with festoons and wall hangings of bright-hued crepe paper as if for some holiday occasion.

BABY VISITS MURDERER.

On last Friday Ira Green, now in the shadow of the gallows, for the first and only time saw his six weeks old son.

Mrs. Green has for a month been very anxious for her husband to see the baby, but was not able to visit the jail until Friday, The husband seemed to have thought of nothing else but this visit since he received news of the birth of the child. Mrs. Green and the child were not allowed to enter the cage in which Green is confined, and Green's pleadings to kiss the baby were ignored. He had to be content with putting his hand through the bars and patting its cheek. The mother wept a great deal as she talked with her husband about his sentence, and Green seemed on the verge of prostration.

When Mrs. Green left the jail she said the baby would never again see its father She has no hope that the board of pardons will grant him a repriéve. It is said that it was Green's desire to be with his wife in her hour of trial that caused him to kill Condo and escape from jail, where he was serving a short term.

Guisewhite---Lambert.

Monday evening at 7:30 Samuel Guisewhite Jr., of Bellefonte, and Miss Emma Lambert, of Spring Twp, were united in marriage at the Catholic parsonage by Rev. Patrick McArdle. Mr. Joseph Guisewhite, a brother of the groom, and Miss Rosie McCulley, acted as best man and bridesmaid respectively. The bride is a daughter of Scott Lambert and is a very pleasant young lady. The groom is employed as a pattern maker at Lingle's foundry and is an industrious young fellow. They left on a short wedding tour and on their return they will go to housekeeping in this city.

Some Prize Cattle.

H. M. Heard, who conducts a large dairy farm near Salona has a herd of cattle of whom anyone might be proud. He weighed the milk of each cow for one week and then summed up the results. Of his 19 cows the smallest quantity of milk for the week was 87¾ pounds and the largest quantity from a single cow was 190¾ pounds of milk. The aggregate amount of milk from the herd of 19 cows was 2,398 pounds. Of this amount 28 pounds was consumed by the family and the balance churned, yielding 163 pounds of butter. Mr. Heard will hold a public sale on March 21.

STORY OF BLACK HAND INTRIGUE

In Which the Victim is a Sixteen-Year-Old Jamison City Girl.

A story which has as its scenes of enactment the towns of Peale, Clearfield county, and Jamison City, Columbia county, was interestingly told in the Bloomsburg Press, as follow:

"That the Black Hand society, that organization founded on crime which has spread terror throughout the country during recent months, has entered in its nefarious work in Columbia county is the firm belief of Thomas Corter, of near Jamison City, whose daughter was poisoned by members of the society within the last few days and who, only a few days ago, received a letter signed 'The Black Hand Society' in which in poorly printed letters there was stated that if the poison which had already been administered had not killed her they would be back again on the 13th to complete the job. Back of it all is a story that sounds stranger than fiction but for the truth which the father of the girl vouches, and in his terror came to the county seat recently to secure the services of the county detective to run down the attempted murderers, but finding that this county has no detective he was compelled to give up the quest.

"It was three years ago, when the daughter of Mr. Corter was but thirteen years old, that the family lived, near Peale, in Clearfield county. It was while the child was out one day in the mountain caring for their cattle that she ran upon a cabin, constructed of rough boards, in which there were three foreigners, who, it is now claimed, were members of the Black Hand society. During the time that the family lived there, the child in caring for the cattle frequently went to the rendezvous of the foreigners and there learned, it is thought, some of the secrets of the gang, which, if exposed, would convict the men of heinous crimes.

"A number of months ago Corter and his family moved from Peale to near Jamison City, where he is employed at a lath mill. From the facts as they can be gathered, the girl who is now 16 years of age, was recently warned by a young man living near Jamison City, and who is also wanted by the gang, that they would soon be in Jamison City to do the girl harm. This man, it is thought by Corter, had left the gang and was trying to live a different life. What the girl knows if anything, she has not yet told her parents.

"The girl realized the danger she was in and for some time stayed close to the house. The other day, however, after night, she was in front of the house when she was suddenly grabbed by three men, who held her while one of the number poured a liquid poison down her throat. The men then succeeded in getting away. The girl at once became violently ill and the mother, upon being informed of the poisoning, administered an emetic, which doubtless saved the girl's life. A physician was summoned, and for several days the girl was seriously ill. What form of poisoning was administered has not yet been announced.

"It was several days later that one of the family found a letter behind a picture frame that hung near the front door. The letter was addressed to the girl, signed by 'The Black Hand Society and in poorly spelled words stated that if she was not then dead they would be back on the 13th to complete their job. It was this letter which alarmed Corter and caused him to come to Bloomsburg to secure help in running down the men who would kill his daughter rather than have her reveal any of the secrets which they believe she knows. Corter stated that if the men are the ones whom he thinks they are there is a large reward offered for their apprehension.

$3,000 Blaze at Lock Haven.

Fire at Lock Haven Sunday afternoon did between $2,500 and $3,000 damage to the Riverside Hotel, owned by Peter Meitzler. The loss is covered by insurance.

The fire started on the roof about 5:30 o'clock, but it is not known what caused it.

The firemen were early on the scene and worked hard for two hours before getting the flames under control, but succeeded in confining the fire to the upper story.

The hotel was drenched with water, and the damage was more from that source than from the flames. And the furnishings of the hostelry were damaged more than the building.

The fire caused a good deal of excitement, and a great crowd was at the scene.

A LONG LIFE OF USEFULNESS

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Weaver Celebrate Their 62ND ANNIVERSARY.

At Their Home in Rebersburg on Sunday—Residents of the County All Their Lives.

AGED COUPLE ARE IN POOR HEALTH.

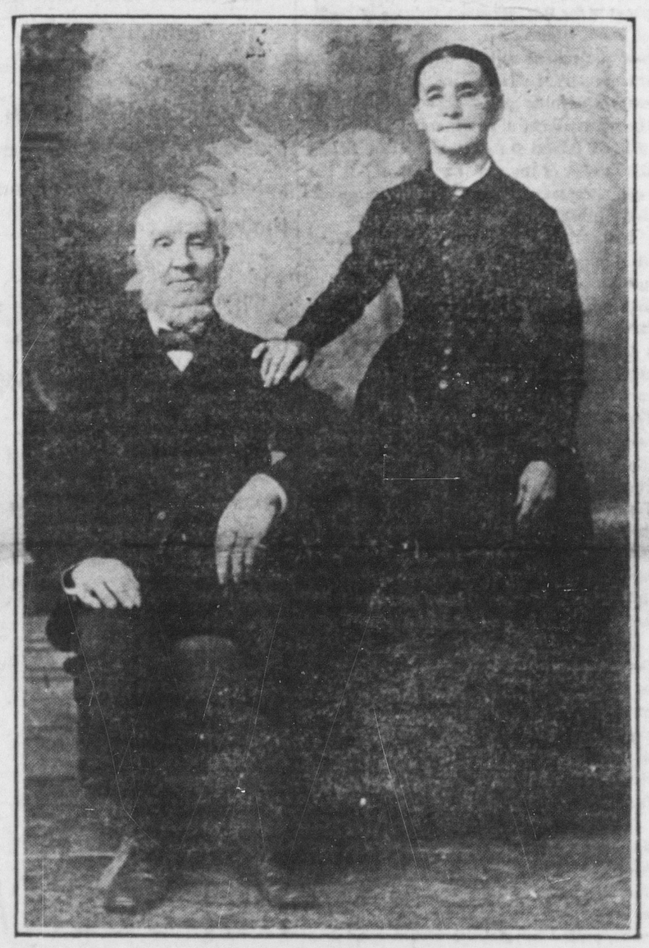
In the little village of Rebersburg, Centre county, was celebrated (Sunday) the 62nd anniversary of the marriage of an aged couple residing there, Mr. George B Weaver and his wife, Sarah Harper Weaver. Friends from far and near gathered to make the event a joyous one. This venerable couple have been life-long residents of Centre county and both are now in feeble health. They belonged to two of the pioneer families of the county and both can relate many interesting incidents of the earlier days.

George B. Weaver was born October 14, 1821, at what was then known as Wolf's Mill, just east of Rebersburg. His future bride, Sarah Harper, was born near Rebersburg June 24, 1824, and both were baptized by Rev. Henry Fries, a well-known Reformed minister of that day. They were married March 12, 1843, by Rev. Peter Fisher. They have three children, as follows: Fietta, wife of S. Krumrine, Joanna, wife of County Superintendent C. L. Gramley, and Miss Della J., all of Rebersburg. They have two grand-children, Geo. E. Krumrine, and Mrs. Alma G. Haines, of Rebersburg. One grand-child, Gertrude S Gramley, daughter of C. L. Gramley, died ten years ago.

George B. Weaver was for many years one of Penns valley's leading farmers but for the last thirty seven years has lived a retired life. Both were always industrious, thrifty people and are members of the Reformed church to whose needs they always contributed.

May these beloved old people live to see many more happy returns of their wedding day.



MR. AND MRS. GEORGE B. WEAVER,
Who on Sunday at Rebersburg celebrated the 62nd anniversary of their marriage.

Homan---Clark.

The marriage of A. B. Homan and Miss E. Lucretia Clark was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Clark, No. 1216, 19th street, Altoona, Tuesday of last week. The groom is a son of Henry Homan, of Centre Hall, where the young couple have been spending the time since Friday. Mr. Homan has been employed in the Pennsylvania railroad shops, boiler department, for about five years and is a skilled mechanic.—Centre Reporter.

FIRE AT WINBURNE.

Three Barns and Contents Totally Destroyed

Winburne had a disastrous fire Saturday morning between 12 and 1 o'clock. It started in the barn af Dr. H. H. Thompson, totally destroying the same, together with three horses, buggies, cases of instruments left in the buggies, hay, feed, etc., the only things saved being a pony and buggy. The flames communicated to the adjoining barns of O. L. Schoonover and John Davis, totally destroying them, together with all the contents. Total loss will be over $2,000.

The fire originated in the room of the driver, James Bannon, who was sleeping at the time, and is thought to have resulted from the explosion of the lamp which was left burning while he was slumbering. When he awoke his clothing was ablaze, and before he could extinguish the fire by which he was being enveloped, he was very badly burned. He was taken to the Cottage hospital at Philipsburg where his injuries were properly looked after.

ROBERT VALENTINE.

A Former Eminent Citizen of This Place Dies at Baltimore.

Robert Valentine, at one time a prominent iron manufacturer of this city, died at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. Summerfield Bond, in Baltimore, Md., Wednesday at 8:30 o'clock after a brief illness. The news of his death caused profound sorrow throughout Bellefonte. He was one of the early pioneer iron manufacturers of this county and one of the founders of the Valentine Iron Company (Now the Nittany furnace) and was prominently identified with every movement for the advancement and best interests of Bellefonte. For the past few years he has been living a retired life.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Summerfield Bond and Miss Emily Valentine, both of Baltimore.

The remains will be brought to Bellefonte for interment but the time has not yet been announced.

In our next issue we hope to publish a more complete sketch of Mr. Valentine's eventful career.

Child Swallows a Whistle.

A four year old child named Cowher, of Sandy Ridge, a few days ago swallowed a small round whistle which passed the entrance to the wind pipe safely, and lodged in the child's throat. Thursday the child was brought to the office of Dr. W. B. Henderson where the whistle was located by means of the X-ray machine and successfully removed by the doctor. The operation was performed in the presence of the Clearfield Medical association which was in session here that day and formed a clinic.

TIE PASS OFFERS NO REST.

For the Wearied Army of Kuropatkin.

THE LATEST REPORTS

Indicate That they are Likely to Meet Another Turning Movement From the North to Add to Their Distress.

THE NEWS FROM SCENE OF HORROR

St. Petersburg, March 14.—(2:00 a. m. Tuesday).—The Russian general staff reports that "the main body had already completed its retreat and the rear guard southward are falling back slowly." What either the "main body" or the "rear guard" consists of has been definitely fixed, by from the dispatches from the Associated Press correspondents with the Japanese and Russians, it means the two combined portions of the army which General Kuropatkin had gathered along the banks of the Shakhe and Hun rivers. And yet those who have reached Tie Pass, worn out from days of fighting and retreating, are not out of danger, the Japanese, it is reported, having already started another turning movement which will force the Russians onto the plains north of Tie Pass, where in their disorganized state they would be easy prey for the victory flushed soldiers of the Mikado.

The men who escaped are strengthening the fortifications in Tie Pass, but it is hardly possible that the pass can be held in face of the overwhelming forces opposed to the Russians, and it is not likely that Oyama will be satisfied with his victory at Mukden as he did after Lyao Yang. There will be no uneasiness as to the food supply as long as communications are maintained to the northward, as large bands of cattle roam the plains under Cossack herders and every station on the railway is a huge commissariat department. The Russian soldier is always well fed, the soup kitchens on wheels always keeping in touch with the men.

As to the losses, General Kuropatkin now admits that 50,000 wounded were carried off the field. This, with 26,500 dead left on the field, the 40,000 prisoners and the wounded left in the hospitals, comes somewhat nearer the latest Japanese estimate that the total Russian losses were 155,000. At this rate Kuropatkin cannot have more than 100,000 effective fighting men with him.

The army of General Linevitch seems to have made the best retreat, but this no doubt was due to the stubborn fighting made by General Rennenkampff on his extreme left, and the equally fierce resistence of Generol Kaulbers on the right, the latter General losing 28,000 men. Neither the army of Kaulbars nor of Rennenkampff has yet been accounted for by the dispatches. After his defeat around the western tombs, Kaulbers, finding his retreat directly northward cut off, made a detour to the eastward, where he was still fighting at last accounts. Rennenkampff must also still be in the hills to the eastward, as it took the Associated Press courier three days to reach Tie Pass.

The Japanese report the capture of 24 more guns, 66 in all, a rather small number considering the decisive defeat and the number of men captured. The Japanese losses have been remarkably light in view of the length and severity of the fighting.

In all the speculation as to peace the one point that is coming to the front is that Russia will prefer to settle directly with Japan without the aid of any third power on. This is in line with the dream of many leading Russians that the natural allies in the Far East are Japan and Russia, they being the only nations whose domains border on Korea and Manchuria, both having other interests there besides those of their citizens.

A Cross Fork Man pays for Illegal Car Riding.

Winslow Kay, of Cross Fork was arrested at Nisbet on Tuesday evening for illegal car riding. He became disorderly and broke a car window in the scuffle that followed. He was taken to Williamsport and was arranged before Alderman Batzle. He had been in Williamsport and while there claims that he had either lost or been robbed of a sum of money. The officers having the case in charge are of the opinion that he spent his money. He paid his fine and left for Cross Fork.

WERE GIVEN RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Lingle Royally Entertained by Their Many Friends.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Lingle, just east of Milesburg, was the scene of a royal wedding reception Thursday of last week. It was the home coming of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Lingle, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lingle, and his bride, who before her marriage was Miss Sarah Hastings, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hastings, of Benner township.

No reception of the kind in Bogge township in recent years eclipsed this in the excellency of entertainment or in the reception of presents.

The groom is superintendent of his father's well managed farm, to which industry he purposes to give his time during the coming year. Mrs. Lingle is one of Benner township, most accomplished young ladies and will most agreeably assume her new domestic duties in Bogge township.

Walter Clark Gilliland.

Walter Clark Gilliland died Feb. 20th at the home of his sister, Sarah A. Kemp, Duke Centre, McKean county, aged forty-five years, one month and one day.

The deceased was the youngest child of David and Margaret Eaken Gilliland, and was born on the old Gilliland homestead, near Potters Mills, the 19th of January, 1860.

He left the public schools at the age of fifteen and entered Dr. D. M. Woll's academy at Pine Hall, from which place he graduated in 1878, when he entered the profession of teaching for several years in Centre and Clearfield counties. He afterward spent the greater part of his life in Northern Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Texas, engaged in the lumber business.

He was a man of retiring disposition and a good, strong, clear thinker, possessed of a strong constitution and fine physique.

About eighteen months ago Bright's disease developed in his system and during the year he was a great sufferer. Early last spring he entered Dr. Pierce's Sanitarium, Buffalo, N. Y., for treatment. He remained there until October, when he entered the hospital at Bradford, and was treated by a noted German specialist until a month ago when he went to the home of his sister. After going there he gradually grew worse until the 20th ult., when he fell peacefully asleep in the full assurance of a blessed immortality.

Maniac in Possession of the Nesbit Tower.

A story has just come to light in which J. Edward Springer, the well known passenger brakeman, proved himself quite a hero. Last Monday night, as the story goes, the night operator at Nesbit tower, six miles west of Williamsport, sent a message to the superintendent's office at Williamsport calling for assistance, as a mad man had taken possession of the tower and had threatened the operator's life. Buffalo Express, the next train to pass this point, was ordered to stop and rescue the operator. Conductor Hoffman and the other members of the crew, after seeing how dangerous the man was, were afraid to tackle him. When Mr. Springer put in an appearance he volunteered to rescue the operator, which he did in a brave and fearless manner. Running up the steps leading to the tower he grabbed the mad man by the collar and pulled him out of the tower and on to the train. After cutting a piece of bell cord he bound the man hand and feet, and on the arrival of the train at Williamsport turned his man over to the police, who landed him in jail.

Mr. Springer received the congratulations of his fellow employes and railroad officials on the courageous and fearless manner in which he handled the man who is still incarcerated in jail awaiting the appointment of a jury to inquire into his lunacy.

Mr. Springer has hosts of friends in Bellefonte who will be glad to know, that although Ed. grows older he does not lose his courage.

The Great Home Paper.

The Philadelphia Press is becoming more and more recognized as the great Home Newspaper of Philadelphia. Its carriers serve the papers directly into the homes, while no paper is more enterprising in the gathering of the news of the world, and it does not allow in its reading columns or in its advertising columns anything to appear which could give offense to any member of the family and fathers and mothers with growing sons and daughters can feel confident that THE PRESS can be brought into their homes and be of Educational benefit to themselves and to their children.

THE MATCH-MAKING BLIZZARD

Carrie Welton, the little school teacher at Smithtown, had for some months been wishing that some change of fortune would take her away from this dreary neighborhood, so full of depressing memories.

She had not always hated the place so—in fact, some of the happiest hours of her life had been spent there, but that was before she had quarreled with Alexander Hall and he had sold out and moved to Dakota.

It was her own fault that she had lost him, and that did not make her feel any the better. Just out of coquetry she had accepted the attentions of a commercial traveler who occasionally visited the town. Hall resented this, and a quarrel was the result.

She was therefore delighted to get a letter from her Uncle Tom one morning from Dakota. He had taken up a quarter section of land and was doing well, and suggested that as many women out there were doing the same, it might be to her interests to take up a claim and try farming.

Carrie had no sooner finished the letter than her decision was formed to go. She wrote her uncle that she would arrive within the next three weeks, and she was with him in less than two.

"I have the lumber all ready for your little house," he said, as he drove her from the station to his "bachelor hall."

Somehow she was lighter hearted and happier since she knew she was in Dakota than she had been for months. She knew why—she did not cheat herself. It was because she was in the same country with Alexander Hall. It gave her a sense of companionship—this very knowledge.

"In the morning I will take you out and show you your claim," continued her uncle. "And I've chosen this site for your cabin. It'll be about a mile from mine—just a nice walk for you when you get lonesome."

The next morning was bright and sunny, but of course windy.

"What a wind! Does it blow often like this?" asked Carrie as they rolled along over the smooth prairie.

"Wind! Why this is a calm day, my dear," said Uncle Tom. "Wait until you have seen a Dakota blizzard, my dear, before you talk of wind."

Soon they came to Carrie's "quarter section," as Uncle Tom called it. Carrie could not see where it began or left off, she told Uncle Tom. It was like all the rest of the country—just land, and nothing more; prairie as far as the eye could reach.

"Well, but I know where the invisible lines lie, responded Uncle Tom. "Now over yonder in that knoll your cabin will be built, after we have attended to the legal formalities, and that is the extreme southern limit of your claim. A little south of it there is a slight ravine, and then another knoll. The ravine is the dividing line between two quarter sections."

"Who owns the other one?" asked Carrie, very anxious to know who might be her next neighbor.

"I don't believe it is taken, though I heard something about it the other day. Some fellow was looking it up I believe. There are some dozen of them around almost daily. That was the reason why I was in a hurry for you to come."

A few days later, after the legal formalities had been attended to, Uncle Tom drove Carrie out again to look at the cabin that was in process of erection on the opposite knoll.

"Why, that claim has been taken, too! I wonder who will be my neighbor?" queried Carrie.

"I can find out at the land office," Uncle Tom replied.

He did so and gave Carrie the desired information the next day.

"It's some fellow named Hall—A. Hall," he said. He just sold out his interest in some claim about fifty miles north of here, and now he's taking up this, which he intends to keep as a homestead. They often sell out at a nice figure after staying a few months on a claim. Some fellow pays them a good round sum for their chance, and they go elsewhere."

Carrie felt a sudden leaping of her heart and a curious excitement at the sound of the familiar name. But was it likely that this was Alexander. It would be too wonderful to be true.

Yet it was Alexander! She saw him at the postoffice the next day, and passed him without so much as a glance. He looked as though she had been an apparition, and took a step forward and then stood still, chilled by her cold glance in which there was no recognition. After all, it was his own fault. He knew he had conducted himself like a brute and an idiot when he left Smithtown. He had realized it a dozen times since—realized it constantly, in fact—with a dull heartache, whenever he was alone with himself. But he had never been quite brave and manly enough to write and ask her pardon, believing ere this that Mr. Parker had the first place in her heart. And now she was here in Dakota! How strange!

A greater surprise awaited him in the knowledge that Carrie's claim and cabin were just opposite his own. The two cabins were completed and furnished, and the occupants moved in. Alexander's was the more pretentious of the two in the exterior, and Carrie's the more sumptuous within. For she had brought her books and she had a few plants and with those indescribable feminine ornaments, which some women seem to create by a turn of their hand, her rooms were very cosy.

"Got acquainted with your neighbor yet, Carrie?" asked Uncle Tom after a month had passed.

"No, and I don't want his acquaintance," answered Carrie, rather icily.

"Nice fellow, I think," said Uncle Tom. "He's got business in him, and will make a successful man. He's taken up a tree claim now. I was talking with him today."

"What is a tree claim?" asked Carrie.

"Oh, you plant so many trees and have them growing at a certain stated time—say two years—and the land is yours. He said you might do that and be worth just so much more. It would cost you but a trifle to have trees planted."

"He is taking an interest in my affairs, is he? Well, nobody thanks him for his advice," snapped Carrie in a voice unusual to her.

Uncle Tom wondered what had come over the girl, usually so sweet tempered.

The weeks went by, and November came. Carrie was on the third month of her six. She had made a great many friends, and had read and sewed and had made her uncle's cabin and her own very pretty and comfortable, and she felt that her time had been well employed.

One November day Carrie was "tacking" a comforter, which she had pieced out of bits of calico. The wind had been blowing with increased fury from the northwest all day. Toward evening it became terrible, and a sleety snow began to fall. It seemed to shake the frail little cabin to its foundation. Carrie felt her heart sink with fear. This was something beyond any of her former experiences, and she remembered what Uncle Tom said of a "blizzard."

"This must surely be a blizzard," she thought.

Higher and higher rose the wind, louder and still louder it shrieked. The walls of the house shook, trembled and then—Carrie was conscious of being lifted into the air by some unseen force, and whirled through the darkness and then falling. After that all was blank.

She was only stunned, and when she opened her eyes she found herself in a confused mass of ruins, and Alexander Hall was kneeling by her calling her name.

"It was not necessary to come over," she said. "I am not hurt in the least."

"Come over!" he repeated, breaking into a laugh. "It is you who have come over, Miss Carrie; and I am very glad to see you, even in this unceremonious manner."

"What do you mean?" she asked.

"Why, I mean that you came, house and all, and planted yourself right in my dooryard with a thunderous clatter. It is a wonder your neck was not broken, my dear."

"Do you really mean, Alexander, that my house blew over into your yard?"

"I mean just that, Carrie. I always thought your cabin rather shaky—mine is twice as substantial—and now you will be obliged to accept my hospitality for the present. Fortunately, I have a man and wife stopping with me this week. They have slept soundly all through this cyclone. They are used to the country But I will wake the good woman now, and she will attend to you."

The next day Alexander said to her:

"Since you unbent sufficiently to call upon me in such an unceremonious manner, Carrie, before I beg your pardon for my own disagreeable meanness, can't you stoop still further and marry me, now that I do most humbly crave your forgiveness? I have always loved you."

Of course Carrie could not refuse.

"'Pon my soul!" said Uncle Tom, when he had heard the whole story. "It's better than a magazine yarn! You are the heroine, Carrie, and Alexander is the hero, and I am the sort of good angel, you know, that fixes things up."

"You and the blizzard," laughed Carrie.

IN FULL RETREAT.

Kuropatkin Is In Full Retreat From Mukden.

Gen. Kuropatkin is giving ground before the armies of Japan and yesterday he abandoned positions south and southwest of Mukden, burning such of his supplies as he could not carry with him. The apanese artillery is thundering at the very gates of Mukden, which position the Russians still hold but which they admittedly are prepared to evacuate, changing their base to Tie pass, which is forty miles north of Mukden. So far as the retreat has progressed it has been orderly. What the Japanese may have in store for the defeated army on its retirement northward remains to be disclosed. There are reports that Gen Rennenkamff, the foremost cavalry general of Russia, in Manchuria, is seriously threatened, and Japanese troops are said to be in considerable number at Tie pass. The result has cost the Russians dearly in supplies and heavy guns. Neither commander nor correspondents have yet ventured to estimate the number of killed or wounded. The Rusian casualties in the fighting on Tuesday on the left flank are said to have been fully 7,000.

KUROPATKIN BEATEN.

Tokio, March 9.—Advices received here indicate that Gen. Kuropatkin is badly beaten in the bloodiest battle of the present war.

New Equipment for the Rock Island.

It has just been announced that to provide for the increased volume of traffic on Rock Island lines, a large amount of new equipment will be delivered, during the month of March, on orders placed several months ago. It is indicative of the industrial and commercial prosperity of Rock Island states that, even before the receipt of the new equipment, it has been necessary to place another large order for delivery in the early summer.

The rolling stock which will be placed in service this month includes twenty new patent passenger cars from the Pullman shops, which embody so many comfort-contributing devices that they make a distinct advance in day passenger equipment. This new departure will come as a surprise to the western traveling public. Ten of the cars will be seventy-foot chair cars, furnished with sixty-four twin reclining chairs, seating as many people. The interior finish is Mexican mahogany, decorated in olive green, with plain green lines and the chairs are upholstered in green. The cars are equipped for lighting both by Pintsch gas and electricity and are fitted with electric fans, for ventilation and cooling.

The other ten cars are seventy-foot vestibuled coaches, with seating capacity for eighty. The seats are upholstered in maroon plush; otherwise the decorations are the same as in the chair cars. All the cars have very large double plate glass windows and are equipped with Pullman standard six-wheel trucks.

One new feature that will be introduced in these cars is an improved draft gear with 125,000 spring capacity. This is about six times the spring capacity of the ordinary passenger coach. On heavy trains, pulled by giant locomotives, this increased capacity of the draft gear prevents disagreeable jars in starting and stopping of trains.

An order is also in for over 4,000 freight cars of various kinds, including

1500 refrigerator cars
1500 box cars
500 furniture cars
475 coal flats
350 special design dump cars
250 convertible coal and ballast cars
25 drop bottom stock cars.

The Rock Island will also receive, during March, 65 new locomotives of various kinds, including twenty Pacific type passenger, ten Atlantic type passenger, fifteen freight and twenty switch engines. An additional order for fifty locomotives will be placed in the near future for delivery in the summer.

Of the new motive power to be delivered this month, six of the passenger are to be equipped with a new super-heating device, being the latest development in locomotive construction, to secure economy in the generation and efficiency in the use of steam. Briefly, the device consists of return steam flues inside the upper fire tubes leading from the fire box. The steam from the dome in passing through this system is exposed to heat which raises its temperature evaporating entrained water and the steam passes perfectly dry to the cylinder.

This new equipment, which is to be added to from time to time, places the Rock Island in the front rank among western railroads in the matter of transportation facilities. The foresight manifested in this meeting, and adequately providing for, the exigencies of increased traffic, is characteristic of the progressive policy of the Rock Island management.

The Virtues of Vin-Te-Na...

Your knowledge of the workings of the "human machine" no doubt makes you aware of the fact that the nervous system is fed and sustained by and through the blood.

When the blood is charged with the elements which nature designed, the entire nervous system and all the organs are kept in a healthful state.

Without the force which the nerves absorb from the blood, both brain and body are poor machines. Vin-te-na contains just those elements which are wanting in impoverished, poor blood. It was found on both common sense and scientific knowledge. It has conscience and integrity back of it. Vin-te-na is the one medicine that does precisely what it was designed to do, i. e. gives life and nerve-food to the blood. It actually cures every one of those disorders which come from impoverished blood.

JAPS OCCUPY MUKDEN

Fate of the Russian Army Still Hangs in the Balance

THEIR POSITION TAKEN

Only Two Thoughts on the Minds of the People, "Surrender or Peace" Kuropatkin No Longer a Hero.

THIS JAPANESE LATEST VICTORY

Tokio, March 11.—The Japanese troops occupied Mukden at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Yinkow, March 11.—Mukden fell at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The Russians are panic stricken. Thousands of prisoners and enormous quantities of stores and guns have been captured.

Tokio, March 11.—11 a. m.—Reports from the Manchurian Army Headquarters say that the Japanese have captured Tiefa. The Russians are vigorously holding and defending their fortifications north of the Hun river. A dust storm is interfering with the battle.

Washington, D. C., March 11.—The Japanese legation Friday received the following cablegram from Tokio:

"Our troops occupied Mukden at 10 a, m. Friday: Our enveloping movements have proved successful and the bloodiest battle is now proceeding in various places near Mukden."

The fate of the Russian army of upwards of a quarter of a million men and the 2,000 pieces of artillery with which it was predicted confidently that General Kuropatkin and his lieutenants could prevent the advance of the Japenese beyond the Shakhe and the Hun river positions, still is in the balance. They have been driven from those positions and now are rushing northward towards Tie pass, around which are high hills which were prepared for defense after the battle of Liao Yang in September, there being no hope at that time that the Japanese would allow the defeated army to rest south of Tie pass. That the Russians have lost many guns and large quantities of ammunition and supplies is certain, for with but a single track railway to the north it would be impossible to remove the large stores which had been gathered together at Mukden. These, it seems certain, have been destroyed. The Japanese have not yet reported the capture of guns, which they generally do almost immediately, but it seems hardly likely that Kuropatkin could have removed all of his artillery. On the first of January, according to correspondent's, who have just returned from Mukden, the Russians had in position along the Shakhe and Hun rivers 1,500 guns including a number of six and eight-inch guns on cement foundations straddling the railway just north of Shakhe station. In addition, many guns arrived in Mukden during January, and February, so that the Russian artillery when the big battle started, must have numbered nearly 2,000 pieces. It is likely that Kuropotkin has sacrificed some of these and is bending all his energies to extricating his army. That his task is a difficult one all the dispatches indicate, but Russian sympathizers point to his retreat from Liao Yang, where conditions were opposed him.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—2:30 a m. —"Last night all our armies commenced to retreat,

The greatest defeat in the history of the Russo-Japanese war was made known in St. Petersburg last night but only in the paltry eight words from General Kuropatkin to Emperor Nicholas, which were flung about the streets in newspaper extras and passed from mouth to mouth.

Two thoughts formed instantly in the minds of everyone, and two words were on every lip—surrender—peace—peace—the former dreaded, the latter hoped for.

General Kuropatkin is no maker of phrases; his words never are quoted like the famous "All is lost save honor," but his laconic message bides more than probably any other two sentences in the literature of war. St. Petersburg knows nothing of the extent of the disaster, not even the lines of Kuropatkin's retreat; whether the route to Tie pass is still open; whether he is endeavoring to cut his way through to safety, or whether as many of the pessimistic believe, he has taken to the mountains. If it be the latter he will inevitably be hemmed in and starved into surrender, as Marshal Baziane was at Metz.

The dispatch has been studied as closely as was ever the most abstruse text of Scripture over which dogmaticians have wrestled and from the words "all our armies" the optimistic drew the deduction that the bulk of the Russian forces got away clear, the commander-in-chief sacrificing, however, the devoted rear guard, who flung themselves as prey to the Japanese wolves, who were closing in on their trail and sacrificing also, it is conceded, on their hand, the greatest part of his heavy artillery, especially the siege guns and enormous quantities of supplies and munitions.

Of the present situations of the army—whether it is utterly routed or merely beaten, of the proportion of Russians left in the Japanese hands, or of the prospect of the escape of the remainder—St. Petersburg at this moment knows less than the smallest hamlet in America.

Fire Destroys High School Observatory.

Philadelphia, March 11.—The new Boys High school at Broad and Green streets, considered one of the finest structures of the Norman type in the country and built and furnished at a cost of more than $1,500,000, was damaged by fire and water Thursday to the extent of about $500,000 The fire began after all the classes had been dismissed. The only scholars in the building at the time the fire was discovered were the candidates for the various athletic teams who were in the gymnasium. They numbered about 200 and rendered good service in saving books and other property.

The fire started in the workshop of Monroe B. Snyder, professor of astronomy and higher mathematics, and was caused by defective electric wiring. One-half of the fifth floor of the main portion of the structure and the entire observatory tower, which rises five floors above the main building, were burned out. The greatest loss was the contents of the observatory. The main telescope, costing $25,000, a number of other instruments, and an instrument for aggregating the colors of the sun, of which there are only four in the world, were damaged beyond repair. The valuable library of Professor Snyder, containing books and papers that cannot be replaced was also destroyed.

Jamestown Exposition.

The Jamestown exposition has more reasons back of it for an appropriation by the Pennsylvania Legislature than some of the enterprises of a kindred character that have blossomed on the Pacific coast. The Jamestown exhibition will be of peculiar advantage to the manufacturers of Pennsylvania, and will enable them to display their products to a people whose trade they are seeking. Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities of the State have long been cultivating trade relations with the South, and if proper advantage is taken of the Jamestown exposition an excellent opportunity will be afforded in that direction.

Senator Cochran, of Lycoming county, has introduced in the Legislature a joint resolution to create a commission and make an appropriation of $100,000 for a Pennsylvania representation at the Jamestown exposition two years hence. It is especially intended to promote closer relations with Southern and West India trade, in all of which Pittsburg has a great interest. Then historic, canal and political relations should induce Pennsylvania to lend a helping hand to the Virginia enterprise. We have close ties with Virginia and the adjacent Southern States.

Girls Who want to Work.

Said a prominent professional and business man the other day: "I want to say a word of encouragement to the girl who cannot afford to take a course in stenography. There is a chance today for the girl who is an expert typewritist, even if she knows nothing of stenography. This is distinctly an age of specializing, and I know many girls who make good incomes from typewriting alone. An expert typewritist is not necessarily a mere copyist. She can take dictation straight on the machine at the rate of 54 words a minute, which is more rapidly than the everage man can dictate. This means that she is accurate and has developed her power of concenrtation. She will command a salary of $12 or $18 a week, particularly if she has mastered the newest attachments, such as the bichrome-ribbon machine or the billing machine. Any typewriter concern is glad to recommend a young woman who can demonstrate the speed and other good points of the machine.

No More Stomach Trouble.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." ## Killed in Accident.

Philip Schoff Keller, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Keller, died at his home in Kansas City, Kansas, 21st ult, aged thirty one years, ten months and three days.

The deceased was born in Boalsburg, this county, having gone west with his parents twenty years ago. He was a boilermaker in the employ of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway company. The accident which resulted in his death took place while he was making some repairs in the fire box of the engine, and was caused by the blowing out of what is termed a blind pocket from the boiler of the engine thus making a whole two inches in diameter, through which rushed scalding hot water and steam. After the accident he was taken to Bethany hospital, but nothing could be done for him. Although he was badly scalded externally and injured by inhaling the hot steam he was conscious until an hour before his death, being able to direct those who removed him to the hospital.

There are left to mourn his loss a widow, his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. J. M. Sweeney, J. Moyer Keller, Kaesas City, Mo.; Mrs. Mary K. David, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs Ezra Tressler, Pennsylvania Furnace; Christian C. Keller, Kansas City, Kan.; Henry F. Keller, Atchison, Kan; Miss Margaret E. Keller and Mrs. Verna I. Kline, Kansas City, Mo. Two brothers, J. W. and Charles E. Keller, died several years ago.

The funeral in charge of the Woodmen and Knights of Pythias orders, was held from the Central Presbyterian church of Kansas City, Kas., in whose choir the deceased had sung for many years. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him, as was demonstrated by the number and beauty of the floral tributes. The immediate members of the family were all present at the funeral except Mrs. Ezra Tressler.

The remains were placed to rest in Elmwood, the most beautiful cemetery in Kansas City, Mo.

An Explosion of Powder Proves Fatal at DuBois.

By the explosion of powder Wednesday morning the little 14 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Baker of DuBois, was burned to death, and Mr. Baker so badly burned that he had to be taken to the Adrain hospital, and Mrs. Baker severely burned but not serious.

The accident occurred at about 5:30 o'clock. Mr. Baker works in the London mine, and as is their custom he and Mrs. Baker arose early, she to prepare his breakfast so that he could go to his work, which is about a mile and a half from town. After breakfast Mr. Baker picked up his powder can, containing about six pounds of the explosive, and standing near the stove threw the can over his shoulder. The cork flew out and some of the powder scatteren upon the hot stove, exploded and caused the rest of the powder in the can to explode.

The child was sitting in a rocker near the stove and in almost an instant her clothing was in flames, the powder having scattered over her, resulting in the little one's death which occurred in about two hours and a half after. Mr. Baker received a like shower of flame and he was so badly burned that he had to be taken to the Adrian hospital. It is thought his case is so serious that he cannot live, Mrs Baker was more fortunate, she escaping with some severe burns about the face, hands and feet, but no serious results are expected The rest of the family were in bed when the explosion occurred.

The explosion was heard by neighbors, who hurried to the scene and rendered all the assistance possible and called in physicians. The walls were scorched and the windows broken.

The Baker family is indeed unfortunate as only on Tuesday their little son Stanley was badly hurt by being run over by a large bobsled.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thompson of Spencer, Ia., says: Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with the hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I can heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

HURRY UP!

Everywhere one hears that expression "hurry up!" It is a genuine Americanism expressive of the "rush" in which we live. Nothing is swift enough for us. We race against steam and lightning and find them slow. We grudge the time given to eating, and rush through meals as though life depended upon our haste.

Life does depend on our haste, but not in that sense. Look at the obituary columns of the papers and see how many prominent men are carried away by "stomach trouble," "acute indigestion" and other related diseases. Their lives have in general been sacrificed to the haste and rush of business which overlooked the fact that food can only nourish the body when digested and assimilated and that the digestive and assimilative processes can't be hurried.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, cures diseases of the stomach and the associated organs of digestion and nutrition. The source of all physical strength is food, properly digested and perfectly assimilated. By enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food "Golden Medical Discovery" increases and enriches the blood supply and sends new strength to every organ of the body.

"I was at one time as I thought almost at death's door," writes Mr. J. S. Bell, of Leando, Van Buren Co., Iowa. "I was confined to my house and part of the time to my bed. I had taken quantities of medicines but they only seemed to feed the disease; but I must say that 'Golden Medical Discovery' has cured me, and to-day I am stouter than I have been for twenty years. I am now forty-three years old."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser sent free to you on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send thirty-one one-cent stamps for cloth bound book or twenty-one stamps for paper covers to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

EDITORIAL.

The Rough Riders who participated in the Inaugural parade know something about rough riding now. Their mounts were heavy artillery horses from a nearby military station.

The last public act which Mr. Baker, of New York, is likely to perform was to prevent the passage of the bill providing for the doubling of the President's salary. Mr. Baker evidently thought that if the country couldn't afford him at five thousand a year it was not equal to paying the President fifty thousand more than he is getting now.

The good citizen is the man, whatever his wealth or his poverty, strives manfully to do his duty to himself, to his family, to his neighbor, to the state; who is incapable of the baseness which manifests itself either in arrogance or in envy, but who while defending himself is no less scrupulous to do justice to others.—Theodore Roosevelt.

The complaint that woman is encroaching upon man's rightful field of work seems to be justified. The Boston Globe finds there are in the United States 550 female carpenters, 130 wood choppers, 200 blacksmiths, 170 brick and stone masons, 3,500 iron and steel workers, 40,000 boot and shoe makers, 180 engineers and 600 machinists. No wonder the number of male cooks is increasing and that our big city streets are lined with the signs of men forced into the polite vocation of ladies tailoring.

It is deplorable that the largest number of citizens of the United States who come together in the Capitol of the Nation must come at a season of the year when the city is least attractive, and when it is most difficult for them to come. There has been again and again spasmodic effort to change the Inauguration day from the Fourth of March to the Thirteenth of April, the day on which Washington assumed the first presidency of the United States. But it is so difficult to get Texas and Maine, Oregon and Florida, and the intermediate states to pull together that this effort has signally failed. It would be a great advantage not only to the thousands that come to Washington to grace and enjoy the Inaugural pageant and ceremony, but also to the country if the short session beginning in November and cut short on the Fourth of March could continue two months longer and thus give Congress an opportunity for a more careful consideration of the important and increasing legislative business of the country.

President Roosevelt in his Inaugural address said "Never before have men tried so vast and formidable an experience as that of administering the affairs of a continent under the forms of a Democratic Republic." Could he have made a mistake and said continent when he meant to use the word nation? What continent had he reference to? Canada as a province of Great Britain is more of the continent of North America than the United States. Then there is Mexico. Have we undertaken to administer the affairs of Canada and Mexico? There was no slip of the tongue when president Roosevelt used the world "Continent." He read his Inaugural address and it had received his last revision at least a week before he read it on the Fourth of March. We are administering the affairs of this continent and not only of this continent but of this hemisphere and the administration is a behest our power imposes and which we cannot escape. It may not be our mission to interfere in all the domestic affairs of the South American Governments but the assertion of the Monroe Doctrine is the pronouncement of a suzerainty and is so regarded and accepted by the great powers of the world and is repudiated by the petty powers of this hemisphere only when they feel there is no danger of foreign aggression.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Mar. 14th.

There is no doubt that a San Domingan treaty will be confirmed by the Senate, but it will be so little like the original treaty first submitted as to be unrecognizable by its authors. The history of this treaty is somewhat curious. The Secretary of State, who has, during his eight years' management of the department, achieved such a big reputation as a diplomatist was ill and away from the department during the San Domingan negotiations. An Assistant Secretary, or shall we say a journeyman in diplomacy, bungled the job. The president who thinks more of results than of verbiage and whose time was much occupied with other matters permitted the paper to go to the Senate as presented and it is probable that he is as grateful as he should be for the careful scrutiny and amendment that it has received from the body of lawyers and strict constructionists

The death after three days illness of the venerable Senator Bates, of Tennessee, is so far the most conspicuous fatality of Inauguration day exposure. There are many other less notable victims. It is impossible under usual Fourth of March weather conditions that there shall not be many deaths from grippe, pneumonia and other diseases from exposure. When one remembers that a simple vote of Congress might change the day of Inauguration from chilly and boisterous March the Fourth to sunny April the thirteenth, the day on which the first president was sworn in it is impossible to regard Congress as other than guilty of man slaughter through laches. On every fourth of March at the Inaugural ceremonies hundreds of thousands of people unaccustomed to exposure are in the weather from five to ten hours, often without food and it cannot be otherwise than that many of them must succumb.

There is much interest in Washington and there will be more or less interest in the country in the enterprise of building a great Convention Hall in the National Capital. There is no city in the country more eligible or desirable for great conventions than Washington. The Capitol, the National Library, the National Museum, the great Department buildings, the White House, Mount Vernon, Arlington, the Washington Monument are only some of the attractions of interest to patriotic Americans, but there is no great meeting house. Congress at the session which has just closed voted to present to the city of Washington the United States exhibit building which now stands in the St. Louis Fair grounds. The frame work is of iron and it is calculated that it can be transported to Washington at an expense of not more than $20,000, and completely rebuilt at an estimated expense of less than half a million dollars. It will make an admirable place for Inaugural balls and for other great assemblies.

It is expected that Washington will at no distant day have another Art gallery, the gift of Mr. Freer, a multi-millionaire and an art connoiseur like Mr W. W. Corcoran to whose beneficence in art and charity the National Capital is so much indebted. If, as it is said that the financial centre of the world is shifting from London to New York why may we not expect in time that the art centre will shift from Paris to Washington? Senator Clark, of Montana, has now on exhibition in the Corcoran Art Gallery over two hundred and fifty of the Chefs d'oeurves of modern painters and owing to the great and increasing wealth of the United States there are no doubt millions of dollars in paintings and sculpture that will gravitate or shift from private galleries to the great public galleries where their refining and ennobling influence may be felt by the largest number.

The National Congress of Mothers is now in session in Washington and delegates from twenty states in the Union have been registered. The greatly increased number of Mothers' Clubs represented indicates the growing strength of the organization which has for its object education and welfare of children of all classes. The Congress will be in session ten days and will be addressed by some of the well-known educators in the country. Professor Stanley Hall, the Author of "Adolescence" will speak and Monday evening President Roosevelt will deliver an address on his favorite subject of Race Suicide. The delegates will be received by Mrs. Roosevelt and will also be given a reception by Mrs. Henderson, wife of ex-Senator John B. Henderson. There will be a model kindergarten and nursery, the latter presided over by Mrs. DuBois, wife of Senator DuBois, of Idaho.

The largest Congressional junkets of the summer will be one to the Philippines which is already under discussion. Secretary and Mrs. Taft will take a party including Alice Roosevelt, the eldest daughter of the president, and it is proposed to use one of the U. S. transports and make up a party composed of the persons mentioned, Speaker Cannon, and his daughter and a number of Senators and Representatives. The object of the party is to investigate all kinds of conditions in the Philippines in anticipation of tariff legislation affecting the Islands.

Rider Haggard, the novelist and author of the well-known "She" has been in Washington investigating as an official commissioner from the English government the Salvation Army settlements in this country. He will visit the principal cities of this country during his tour of investigation. While here he has been entertained by the British Minister, Sir Mortimer Durand.

Harry E. Zimmerman, of Benner township, announces himself in this issue of the Republican as a candidate for County Commissioner subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. Mr. Zimmerman has always been a hard working farmer and has been a life long Republican. He has the qualifications to make a first class commissioner.

The Senate has done one commendable, one redeeming thing in strangling the mileage steal passed by the House of Representatives.

THE DEATH OF D. A. WELCH,

Full Particulars of the Sad Events—Attended Dance Night Before.

The following particulars of the sudden death of D. A. Welch are taken from the Potter Enterprise of March 9.

"I had an awfully good time at the Thespian dance last night." Three minutes after these words were uttered by Dee A. Welch early Saturday evening, he was a corpse, dying in the presence of his father and mother with whom he had been happily conversing.

The young man with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Welch, occupied apartments in the second floor of the Crosby house on Main street, and it was indeed a happy home until Saturday evening. The family arose from the supper table about 6.10 and entered the sitting room, the young man apparently in the best of health and spirits. He first sat in a chair and in response to a question as to how he enjoyed himself at the Thespian party the night before he made the reply as quoted above. From the chair the young man went to the sofa, and a moment afterwards, his father hearing a peculiar noise turned to the young man and found him dead, Doctors were immediately called by phone and neighbors used every effort to bring the man back to life, but there was not even a sign of life when the father rushed to his son's side. The doctors state that apoplexy was the cause of death.

Deceased worked with his father in the basket factory, and aside from the fact that two or three times during the day he stated that his heart was thumping, he did not complain about being ill, and appeared to be in high spirits and in fine physical condition. He had the appearance of being a strong healthy, robust man. His death was sad and a great shock to the whole town, and to the sorrowing parents, everyone extends sympathy.

Deceased was born in Mansfield, August, 25, 1877.

Monday a short prayer service was conducted at the home by Rev. E. S. Toensmeier, after which the body was taken to Mansfield for burial. The remains were accompanied by the grief-stricken father and mother, and B. V. and E. M. Elliott and families, uncles of the deceased.

The death was one of the saddest that has occurred in this place for some time. Mr. Welch had a large number of warm friends. He was the sort of man who made warm friends, for they realized in his friendship, they could rely and depend upon. He was of a bright and sunny disposition, and met all his acquaintances with a bright smile and wholesouled greeting.

To the deeply afflicted parents the Enterprise extends its deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Anna Weber.

Mrs. Anna Weber, widow of the late Balser Weber, died Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at her home in Howard. Her death was due to infirmities incident to old age. Her maiden name was Anna Pletcher and she was the daughter of Henry and Magdalena Pletcher, of Howard, where she was born 77 years ago.

She was a worthy christian lady and a member of the Mennonite church. She is survived by the following children: Abram, William, John, Clara and Mary, all of Howard.

The funeral took place no Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the house. Interment in Schenks cemetery.

The country is enjoying the luxury of having a Vice-President again.

Eckley—Miller.

A quiet but very pretty wedding ceremony was celebrated on Thursday evening March 9th at the home of Charles Miller on Phoenix street. The contracting parties were Mr. Miller's daughter, Miss Mary M. Miller and Mr. George W. Eckley. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock in the evening and was performed by Rev. W. B. Cox, pastor of the Evangelical church. Only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present. After congratulations were extended all sat down to a bountiful wedding supper which proved most enjoyable.

The bride is a bright and interesting young lady and the groom is a popular young cigar dealer in the Bush House block. Both are residents of Bellefonte.

Port Matilda.

We are glad to see the two oldest folks of the vicinity, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lewis, back again to their old home. They have spent the winter visiting among their children and other relatives. They are both very active. And to see Mr. Lewis you would never think that he has almost past his eighties.

Mrs. Susan McKinney returned to her home in this place on last Thursday, after an extended visit at her daughters, Mrs. Z. I. Woodring, in Philipsburg

There was a party on Friday night at A. R. Woodring's. It was a "Taffy puling. There were about twenty young folks there. Well, now if you could have seen some of those young gentlemen puling taffy you would have thought they were fishing for suckers.

Mrs. Jesse Woodring visited in Milesburg from Friday until Saturday evening when she returned to her home near this place.

Thomas Weaver, of this place, is visiting in Philipsburg.

M. J. Woodring wife and daughter, of Philipsburg, have been visiting their homes in this place since Saturday.

Another "Taffy Pulling" on Saturday night. Quite a large crowd gathered at the home of Mrs. Madora Marks, where they made taffy and had other provisions, such as cake, popcorn, etc., and played games until some one made the start, then they left. They all seem to have spent an enjoyable. If you don't believe it just ask Stover. He seems to know all about it, as he said they did not all go home, for there were about six remained until the big hours of morning.

James Reese and family Sundayed in this place at the home of H. C. Woodring.

The Odd Fellows order gave an oyster supper in the K. G. E. hall on Saturday night to the members of the order and their families.

Miss Mary Bennett, who left for Powelton a couple weeks ago, has returned home again.

Mrs. Bella Woodring spent Sunday in Altoona.

On Monday ex-Judge John G. Love, the attorney who is defending the majority of the people in this community against the liquor license, took affidavits. Kline Woodring, attorney for Henry Custer, the defendant, was here also. There has been plenty of proof to show that the license is not wanted by the majority of our best citizens and is not needed.

Olivia.

Asbury Stonebraker had a valuable horse die recently.

Mrs Amos Nearhoof made a visit to Tyrone on Tuesday of last week.

John S. Woomer made a business trip to Tyrone on Monday.

Wm. Friday, of Vail, made us a short call on Monday.

A. Y. Williams made a business trip to Port Matilda on Thursday.

Wm. Walislagle spent Saturday night with friends at Tyrone.

Wm. Cherry of Vail, made a business trip to this place on Thursday.

Our village transfer has gone out of business on account of traffic being dull.

S. R. Stewart and Perry Spitler, made a business trip to Tyrone Wednesday,

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Balling attended the Nearhoof sale, near Spring Mount, on Wednesbay.

Scott Miles and J. M. Williams, of Port Matilda, were business visitors in our midst on Tuesday.

We are glad to note that H. B. Trostle and family, who had been suffering with the grip, are improving.

Edgar Williams and Austin White made a pleasure trip to the homes of some of some of their friends on Cherry avenue Monday evening.

B. C. Eckley and daughter, Mrs. James Walch, moved to Port Allegheny last week. Mr. Walch will remain here several weeks before departing for his new home.

Some of our citizens signed a petition and sent it to the postoffice department at Washington, asking to have a rural free delivery through our section of the country. This would be very convenient for some, while others would not be benefited.

Blanchard.

James Campbell, of Milesburg, was the guest of his uncle Mr. James Kunes over Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel McDowell and husband of State College, Sundayed with her father H. A. Snyder.

James Eagan who has spent four years in the Philippines in active service has returned to his home again, looking as handsome as ever, only a little thiner. We are all glad to welcome you Jimmie.

Miss Cora Snyder returned to Wellsborough Saturday after spending three months with he parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Pletcher attended the funeral of Mrs. Balser Weber on Saturday at Howard.

Percy Bitner has purchased a new phonograph, and its melody delights his home people and the neighbors in general. Indeed travel where you will you will never find a more musical village than this, with its pianos, organs, guitars, banjos, phonographs mouth organs and last but not least the family jars, which somehow come in for an accompaniment between them all, sprinkling a little notoriety upon the few participants.

The order of the day at present in our village is surprise parties and quilting bees, and the ladies are all having their little harmless gossip, and using their busy needles at the same time. So there is no harm done, as you know woman will talk.

Snow Shoe.

Chas. Shope, the hustling insurance agent of Philipsburg was a pleasant caller in our town last week.

Miss Mabel Halderman, of Emporium, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kesling.

Guy Lucas left for Philadelphia last Wednesday morning.

Joseph Corcoran, of Philadelphia, was a recent caller to our town.

Johnny Daley is around with the rounds.

Our friend Joe is very fond of "Excelsior Water" and has ordered a consignment from Ohio. For further particulars inquire of Chad.

Miss Rena Uzzle returned home on last Saturday evening from Bellefonte, where she has been visiting for the past few weeks.

J. H. Crandall is on the sick list.

Albert Miller the hustling clothier of Karthaus spent Sunday in our town.

They say Wilson is getting pretty great down at Clarence.

Prof. D. C. Hawkins, formerly of Stob Hill but now of Clarence, seems to be curting quite a figure in the S. S. society as he has been seen quite frequently perambulating the street, with the fair "maidens" of our town. Our advice to this young man, would be that he beware of Fritzie, as he often comes around.

Paul Irwin spent a few days out of town this week in search of a cow so they say.

HOW CRANDALL KILLED THE CATAMOUNT.

Our friend Crandall killed a Catamount
Of which he will give a detailed account.
On Monday morning Jerry started on a jump
With Ben, buckshot and his friend "Stump;"
To the Cato Hill they went
Where "Stump" soon found a scent
With Stump on the lead and Ben nearby
It was evident something would have to fly
Buckshot was stationed on the hill;
And his orders were shoot to kill
While Jerry started in search of the game,
Thinking of course, that it was tame.
And to our friends surprise,
He met a ferocious cat of large size,
Without even a chance to climb a tree,
Jerry faced about and fired one, two, three,
For further information about this cat.
You can telephone Jerry or call at—

Centre Hall.

Julian A. Flemming who has been visiting his son Malcolm in Washington city and other relatives in Bradford Co., is home again looking well and hearty.

Ephriam Witmer, of Hickory Corner who through D. C. Keller sold what is known as River coal in Centre Hall two years ago is stopping at the Old Fort hotel. He is collecting delinquent bills of which there are quite a number.

Isaac Shawver is making preparations to move to his new stand in Millheim and Edward Royer is also preparing to occupy the hotel which Mr. Shawver will vacate.

Henry Homan who had a paraletic stroke which affected the muscles of the eye lids so that he cannot open the eyes except by lifting them up with the hand, went to the Will's Eye Hospital in Philadelphia for treatment. The doctors gave him very little encouragement, so he returned home and will make preparations to quit farming. He is at present farming one of the Mrs. Curtins farms, which was bought last fall by Henry Stoner, of Tusseyville.

In corroboration of the statement so frequently made that the good wages paid by manufacturers in the cities are drawing all the able bodied young men from the country to the cities, I would state that Mr. Homan had leased the Van Tries farm near Linden Hall. His affliction renders him unfit to do any work, and his sons are unwilling to relinquish the good paying positions they hold in different cities, so he is compelled to retire from farming.

Rev W. H. Schuyler, Ph. D. pastor of the Presbyterian church here is holding a series of meetings preparatory to communion next Sabbath. He is assisted by Rev. James Boal, D. D. and Rev. Carver, of Milesburg, a brother of Mrs. Schuyler.

Wm. Walker, of Grampian visited his mother Mrs. Lida Walker at this place last week.

There's a story of a farmer and his son driving a load to market. Of the team they were driving one was a steady reliable old grey mare the other a fractious balky black horse. On the way the the wagon was stalled and the black horse sulked and refused to pull "What'll we do father," said the younger man. "Well" said the father, "I guess we'll have to lay the gad on the old grey." That homely compliment to women: "The grey mare the better horse" suggests how often when there's an extra strain to be borne it is laid on the woman's back. How often she breaks down at last under the added weight of some "last straw." Women who are dragging along wearily through life can gain real strength by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts back in concentrated form the strength making material which working women use up more rapidly than it can be restored by Nature in the ordinary processes of nourishment and rest. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are universal favorites with women because they are easy to take and thoroughly effective in curing the consequences of constipation.

CENTRAL STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.
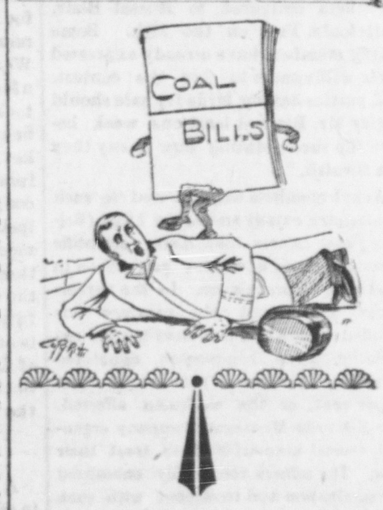
LOCK HAVEN, - - - - PENN'A.
J. R. Flickinger, Prin.
Fall term 15 weeks begins September 5th 1904.
Last year was the most successful in the history of this important school—about 700 students. Location among the mountains of central Pennsylvania, with fine water, splendid buildings and excellent sanitary conditions make it an ideal training school. In addition to its Normal course it also has an excellent College Preparatory Department in charge of an honor graduate of Princeton. It also has departments in Music, Elocution and Business. It has a well educated Faculty, fine Gymnasium and Athletic Field.
Address for illustrated catalog,
The Principal.



Sometimes it Happens
that bills seem to jump on a man, they come in such numbers and so frequently.
Cold weather, of course, may cause a greater consumption of coal but perhaps the coal is poor and tons of it must be used to get up even and ordinary heat.
Not so much with this Coal of ours. It neither flies up the chimney in smoke nor drops through the grate as ashes. It burns slowly and makes things red hot while burning.

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

WANTED—A Typist who will ch w CHICLETS.

—The time is fast approaching when the Academy grounds must be in condition for the notable centennial visitors. Have you made a contribution to the beautifying fund.

—Dr. J. Jones has rented the Zimmerman house on east Lamb street and will move his family there April first. Thomas Murphy and family will move from where they now live on east High street to the Shrom property on east Lamb.

—Philipsburg will on March 29th and 30th entertain the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Huntingdon Presbytery. The sessions will be held in the Presbyterian church and will open on Wednesday evening with a general rally, at which several addresses will be made. It is expected that about 125 delegates will be present, in addition to other visitors.

—Mr. Thomas A. Shoemaker was awarded the contract by the Pennsylvania railroad company, last Friday, for minimizing the sharp curve in the railroad at Lewistown. To do the work will require the building of two and one-half miles of four-track roadbed. The work is to be begun at once and completed within the year. Mr. Shoemaker is now engaged in building a large stone bridge for the B. & O. Company out near Pittsburg.

—The Bellefonte School Board has taken decisive action in regard to parents who do not send their children to school. A test is being made of some twenty families in town who keep children away. Notice was served upon every one the past week by officer Montgomery that unless they send their children to school, the compulsory law would be enforced regardless of the consequences. That means that they will be arrested with the liability of a fine and imprisonment.

—The representative of Fulton county to the state assembly of 1905 introduced a bill recently that should receive the support of the rural districts. It provides for an extra appropriation for those districts in which a 10 mill tax will not suffice to pay the minimum salary to teachers. Under the present system there are districts in which a maximum tax at the present high assessed valuation will not, with the present appropriation, pay the minimum salary.

—The Bellefonte sportsmen contemplate having a sparrow shoot on Wednesday, March 29th. They want 500 birds and will pay 25 cents per dozen for them delivered to Russel Blair, Bellefonte, Pa., on the 28th. Some thirty members have already expressed their willingness to join the contest, and parties having birds for sale should notify Mr. Blair at least one week before the shoot, stating how many they can furnish.

Ankylostomiasis has increased to such an alarming extent among the Liege (Belgium) coal miners that many scientific experiments are now being carried on to determine its prevalence. In the various mines throughout the province this dreaded disease was prevalent beyond expectation. The commission appointed to investigate the malady found at least 20 per cent, of the workmen affected. The Nouvelle-Montague Company organized; special hospital staff to treat their men. The miners voluntarily submitted to examination and treatment with such a measure of success that not one miner is at present suffering from the malady. When the treatment commenced 287 men were employed in this company's mines, of whom 215 suffered from miner's worm. The mines, under this systematic treatment and the institution of sanitary measures recently prescribed, are now pronounced free from any contagion.

—A means for protecting the hands with a film of rubber has recently come into use quite extensively. The application of the formula is especially valuable to surgeons when carrying on their work, as this method of protection against infection is said to be equally efficacious as rubber gloves. A 4, 6 or 8 per cent. solution of gutta-percha in benzine or acetone when applied to the hands of the surgeon or the skin of the patient will seal the surfaces with an insoluble impervious and practically imperceptible pellicle, which will not allow the secretions of the skin to escape, and will not admit blood, pus or secretions into the crevices of the skin. This application has the great advantage over rubber gloves that it does not impair the sense of touch nor the pliability of the skin. After sterilizing the hands and thoroughly drying them, the gutta-percha solution is applied over the hands and forearms, care being taken to fill in around and beneath the nails. The hands are then kept exposed to the air, with the fingers separated until thoroughly dry. The acetone solution dries quicker, but that in benzine is said to wear longer.

Wedded at Lancaster.

Miss Leone Bair, daughter of J. Frank Bair, of Philipsburg, but who has been making Lancaster her home for some time, was married Tuesday morning in the latter city to M. B Wertz, a prominent young candy manufacturer of that place. The wedding took place at 9 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. E. Whittaker, of the Trinity Lutheran church, immediately after which the happy couple took the train and came to Philipsburg to spend a part of their honeymoon. On their return to Lancaster they will at once go to housekeeping, the groom having just purchased and furnished a very comfortable home. He is one of the rising young business men of Lancaster, and an active christian worker, especially in connection with the Y. M. C. A.

Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. For sale by C. M. Parrish.

The Way They Do it in Penfield.

Penfield seems to be a community with social laws peculiarly its own. The Press, of that village, in its most recent issue, says: They say that up at DuBois some of the merchants make a practice of kissing their customers' children in order to stand in with the mothers of the town. In Penfield the same end is reached by a different means. The mother is kissed first and the kids are given licorice drops if they promise not to tell.

A Destructive Fire.

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. ## NEVER TIRE OF IT.

Bellefonte People are Pleased to Show the Gratitude They feel.

People cured of lame weak and aching back, kidney weakness and urinary troubles never tire of letting others know about the remedy which did it; Doan's Kidney Pills. The cures are permanent cures, as people who were cured years ago now testify. Here is a case of the thorough working of Doan's Kidney Pills here in Bellefonte.

James Rine, carpenter, of 239 High Street, says: Doan's Kidney Pills cured me in 1879 and the statement I made for publication at that time recommending this remedy was a true statement and stands good todsy. I therefore have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills again. I was so weak before I took the first dose that I could not put on my shoes and was hardly able to drag myself around. There were severe pains all through my back and down into my limbs. During all the years since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me I have not been troubled in this way. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a good many people and have sent many sufferers to F. Potts Green's drug store for their first box. In no case has the result been other than satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the United States.

A VETO FROM PENNYPACKER

The Bill to Prohibit Adulteration of Food.

GETS OFFICIAL AXE

It is in Conflict With Existing Law—The Governor Presents Some Good Reasons and the House Sustains His Action.

OTHER WORK OF STATE LAWMAKERS

Harrisburg, March 10.—After disposing of a large number of bills on final passage and several others on first reading, the House of Representatives adjourned Thursday until Monday evening.

The special public roads bills, which has been amended so as to divide equally between the county and township 16 2-3 per cent of the cost of public roads, the state paying the balance, was reported from committee. The bill has also been amended so as to provide that no rights shall be granted to street railway's over any road but the state highway department except, under conditions to be defined by that department.

The appropriations committee of House accompanied by Speaker Walton and Philip H. Johnson. a Philadelphia architect, left today in a special car for an inspection of the Danville State Inane Hospital. Mr. Johnson will prepare provisions for the temporary buildings to relieve the crowded condition of the asylum From Danville the committee will go to Pittsburg to be the guests at a reception on Saturday of the Associated Hospitals of Pittsburg and Allegheny.

ANOTHER VETO.

Governor Pennypacker Thursday sent to the House his veto of the bill "To prohibit the adulteration of food, as providing for the enforcement thereof."

The Governor says there is no prohibition in the bill which is not contained in the act of June 26, 1895. Continuing, he said :

"The subject of the bill purports to be the prohibition of the sale of fruit syrup, prepared fruits and fruit products containing more than one-fourth, of one per cent, of sodium benzoate or more than one-fourth of one per cent. of added color obtained from harmless vegetable substance as the act of 1895 prevents the use of these substances, this bill, if it became a law, would repeal to that extent the former act. It would also be such a repeal without any reference whatever to the preceeding act as the constitution requires.

The subject of the bill, however, is not the prohibition of the adulteration of food since this subject had been much more fully covered by the prior legislation. The real purpose is found in the words 'but the use of such added substances in such proportions or less shall be and desire by permitted,'

"To this subject, which constitutes the really important part of the bill, there is no reference whatever in the title and therefore, the bill is plainly unconstitutional.

"Since these important words are contained in the midst of a long section, the bill is calculated to mislead the legislator and is an unusually striking example of evil which the provision of the constitution with respect to the title was intended to prevent. For these reasons the bill is not approved."

The veto was unanimously sustained by the House.

BILLS REPORTED.

Among the bills reported from committee was the Senate bill creating the office of additional law judge in Erie county.

Bills creating a communication to revise the bituminous mine laws and levying the one-mill tax on all property not taxed for state purposes to be used for the improvement of the public roads, were also reported from committee.

Bills making eight hours a legal day's work in the anthracite coal mines, and prohibiting the employment of children under 16 years in the mines, and under 14 years in or about the coal breawer or colliery in the anthracite region, passed second reading.

PASSED FINALLY.

Following were among the bills passed finally :

Providing for the examination and licensing of engineers having charge of the steam boilers, steam engines, etc , in cities of the second and third class, and providing further the proposed acts shall not become oparative in third class cities until after City Councils shall have acted only in the office of boiler inspector.

Defining and declaring the giving of short weights and measurments a misdemeanor and fixing a penalty of $300 or 90 days imprisonment for violation of the proposed act.

Providing that one-half the cost of county bridges destroyed shall be paid by the county and the remainder by the state.

The bill prohibiting the sale of black bass failed on final passage.

The Publ bill requiring unincorporated societies supported in whole or in party by contribution to make uniform reports to the Prothonotary of each county in which the society and office existed, was amended.

Deserved Popularity

To cure Constipation and Liver troubles by gently moving the bowels and acting as a tonic to the liver, take Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are mild, pleasant and harmless, but effective and sure. Their universal use for many years is a strong guarantee of their popularity and usefulness. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Women as Money Makers.

It has been estimated that 31 per cent of the single women in this country are engaged in money-making occupations, as well as 32 per cent of the widowed and 55 per cent. of the women who have been separated from their husbands. When it comes to married women, it is stated that only 6 per cent. are engaged in money making.

This is taken to mean that women in the homes they have chosen for themselves are for the most part contented with domestic interests. As for the others, their mingling with men in the lire of business seems to suggest many problems in future political economy. Perhaps, as has been suggested, it means that part of a man's salary is being earned by the women of his family, and the wage earning rate will be adjusted accordingly. Meanwhile it seems that women are coming to be competitors with men more in the light of comparative ability than a willingness to accept less money for equal work. Hence the advantage. if it exists, is on a fair ground. In any event, the matter is still unsettled.

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are the DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation. Billiousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Owner's Rights in Highways.

If a farm deed is bounded by, on or upon a road. it usually extends into the middle of a roadway, says a Vermont correspondent of American Cultivator. There are a few excepticnal cases, but ordinarily the farmer owns the soil of half the road and may use the grass, trees, stone, gravel, sand or anything of value to him either on the land or beneath the surface. subject only to the superior rigbts of the public to travel over the road and that of the highway surveyor or other similar officer to use such materials for the repair of the road, and these materials he may cart away and use elsewhere on the road, but he has no right to use them for his own private purposes. No other man has a right to feed his cattle there or cut the grass or trees, much less deposit his wood, old carts, wagons or other things thereon, and after notice to the owner the farmer may remove them to some suitable place. and if they are lost or injured it is not his fault.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of stomach trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which entirely cured me. The six bottle were worth $1,000 to me." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest--recuperates and grows strong. ### The "Noble Six Hundred."

Thomas Yates of Toledo, O., believed to be the sole survivor on this side of the Atlantic of the "noble six hundred," who made the famous charge at the battle of Balaklava, Oct. 25, 1854, has just celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of that event immortalized by Tennyson in his "Charge of the Light Brigade." Mr. Yates, though 81 years of age works every day.

Automobiles in Madagascar:

The road followed between Mahatsara and Tananarivo is 155 miles long and runs through mountainous country, with many curves but with maximum grades of 9 per cent. only. The "rolling stock" consists of automobile trucks of 15 horse power, and two 12-horse power brakes, all of the Panhard-Levassor make. Ordinary mails weigh from 1,308 to 1,800 pounds, but the French mail attains a weight of 5.500 to 6.500 pounds and the eight automobiles are sometimes overloaded and require thorough inspection after each trip.

The automobile drivers are colonial soldiers, almost all mechanics by trade and their apprenticeship on the road has been so carefully direcsed that each vehicle can safely be trusted to the operator aided by a single Malagassy assistant Repair shops and stores of repair parts are distributed along the road, as well as gasoline charging stations. The 15-horse-power vehicles are arranged to carry four passengers, and in addition to officers and officials, many persons apply for passage on the automobiles, although the two-day trip to Tananarivo costs 192 francs, while the same journey may be made in native vehicle (pousse-pousse) in five days at a cost of only 150 francs. - L. Perisse, in The Engineering Magazine for March.

Motor Trucks on Common Roads

Interesting figures showing the destructive effect upon the road surface exercised by heavy loaded trucks, appear in the figures furnished by the engineers-in-chief of the Ponts et Chaussees in the various departments of France in which motor-car service has been established. In the department of Calvados, 10-ton omnibuses were run at 7-5 miles an hour; the width of the metal tires was about 5½ inches Although the service was infrequent, the additional expense necessary for the maintenance of the road was a little over 800 francs per mile per year. In the department of the Loire, motor trucks carrying a load of 3 tons were put into use on a road upon which they had to surmount a grade of 11 per cent. They showed a notable economy over animal traction during the summer season. but not enough to compensate for the heavy additional outlay, amounting to a sum varying from 1100 to nearly 3300 francs per mile, necessary for the maintenance of the road in winter. This was due to the lack of proper solidity in the sub-soil, and to the frequency of the service, which extended over a circuit of less than 4½ miles, the trucks passing over the road at too short intervals for its proper maintenance.—L. Perisse, in The Engineering Magazine for March.

A Severe Cold for Three Months.

The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story : "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. For sale by C. ### Trying a Joke.

Some years ago in a North Carolina court, Judge Shipp presiding, the trial of a cause had been protracted till near midnight. The jury were tired and sleepy and showed flagging attention. Willie Murchison, who was addressing the jury, thought to arouse them, so he said: "Gentlemen I will tell you an anecdote." Instantly the judge, the jury and the few spectators pricked up their ears and were all attention, as Murchison was admirable in that line, had a fund of anecdotes and no one could tell them better. But he soon proceeded to tell one of the dullest, prosiest and most pointless jokes possible. Everybody looked disappointed. The judge leaning over, said in an unmistakable tone of disappointment, "Mr. Murchison, I don't see the point of that joke." "Nor I, either," replied the witty counsel. "But your honor told it to me on our way down here, and as I thought the lack of appreciation must be due to my obtuseness, I concluded to give the joke a trial by jury."

SAVED MY LIFE

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don t use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bryan, of Roland, are all smiles over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy on Wednesday, March 8.

—Andrew Carnegie has contributed $1,500 toward the purchasing of an organ for the First Presbyterian church in DuBois.

—The Bituminous Record, of Philipsburg, has been changed from a weekly to a semi-monthly and is issued on the 10th and 24th of each month.

—The Rev. William Hilton Butts, Rector of All Saints church, Williamsport, preached in St. John's Episcopal church on Tuesday evening.

—Mr Francis J. Saunders has given up his course at State College and will probably go to Philadelphia where he has a good offer to go on the stage.

—Mr. J. S. McCargar moved last week from the Kelchline house on East Bishop street to the new house just erected by Mrs. Robert Cole on the same street.

—Lenten services daily in St. John's Episcopal church will be as follows: Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 5:00 p. m. Tuesdays and Fridays at 7:30 p. m.

—The twenty horses at the Gentzel-Beezer sale, at Millheim, last Saturday, were sold by auctioneer W F. Smith in just eighty minutes. They brought an average price $178 50.

James I. McClure left Friday afternoon for Greensburg to take charge of the sewing machine department of a large store in that place. His staying depends on how he likes it.

—Owing to a large number of cases on the list for trial at the April term of court, the Court has ordered that a three weeks' term be held, beginning Monday April 24th.

—The Bellefonte Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James P. Coburn on North Allegheny street. A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. George Israel Brown.

—Frank Williams, the electrician, has secured a good position in the large paper mills at Williamsburg where the plant is being equipped with all the latest electrical appliances. The family will move to Altoona in the course of a few days.

—The steam heat works is installing a six-horse power gasoline Fairbanks engine and centrifugal pump along the creek to pump water for the boilers. The present water rate is so excessive that they calculate they can largely reduce their expenses by pumping their own water.

—Yale Alumni of Central Pennsylvania held their annual banquet in the Harrisburg club, Tuesday, March 7th. There was sixty members present two from Bellefonte, Dr. Clifton Smith, of the Bellefonte Academy and Noah H. Swayne, Superintendent of the Nittany furnace. One of the Harrisburg papers speaking of the toast given by Mr. Noah H. Swayne said: It easily carried off the honors of the evening.

—Landlord H. S. Ray, of the Brockerhoff house has sold his buss team of bay horses and in the future guests will be transferred to and from the station by his Cadalac automobile, operated by Christ Beezer, who is becoming an expert with the lever. It is claimed that this service will be more popular and at the same time will prove a great saving. The new service went into operation on Tuesday.

—Charles E. Thropp, the hustling advance agent of Nixon & Zimmerman's "Miss Bob White" company, was injured in a railroad wreck near DuBois on Wednesday last. It is a remarkable fact that in spite of the number of theatrical people continually on the road, very few have suffered railway disasters, and Mr. Thropp, though not seriously hurt, is quite proud of the distinction, although not anxious to repeat the experiment.

—Cigarettes and cigarette paper are barred absolutely from the state of Indiana after June 1, 1905. They cannot be manufactured and sold—but, what is more to the point, it will be an infraction of law "to keep or own or be in any way concerned, engagged or employed in owning or keeping any such cigarettes, cigarette paper or wrapper." In other words, they can't be smoked. The prohibitory measure, the passage of which in the state legislature resulted in sensational bribery charges, was signed by Gov. Hanly. For the first violation as its provisions a fine not exceeding $500, or a jail sentence of six months may be imposed.

—The newly elected constables throughout the county were sworn in on Monday March 8.

—Rev. J. E. Morris, who has been confined to his house for nearly two weeks, is able to be about again.

—The co-workers of the Lutheran church held a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gettig, Thursday night.

—J. Wallace Reeder has resigned his position with the Nittany Iron Co., to become a timekeeper on the Shoemaker railroad contract.

—Miss Dora Meyer, of this place, is presiding over the pipe organ at the Episcopal church while Miss Bradley is on a visit to Philadelphia.

—Harry Kessinger, one of the men arrested on the charge of robbing the two old Eby brothers, was released on bail the latter part of last week.

—S. H. William's men have commenced the work of re-painting the Burnside house on Curtin street which was recently purchased by John Porter Lyon, who will occupy it after April 1.

—Rev. Henry Holloway of Bellefonte, a brother of Dr. Holloway of Salona, preached two fine sermons in the Lutheran church at Salona Sunday. Rev. Holloway made a very favorable impression on the Salona people.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the United Brethren church will hold a chicken and oyster supper in the Aid society's room of the church on Saturday evening next. Supper ready to serve at 5 o'clock. Ice cream and cake will also be served.

—Al. Heverly has resigned his position as clerk at Shuey's store and severed his connection there Saturday night. His place is being temporarily filled by W. W. Bible. Mr. Heverly will go into the poultry business at Axe Mann.

—The Alonza Hatch Electro Photo Musical company, presenting moving pictures and illustrated songs, together with a harpest and violinist will give an entertainment in the Opera house Tuesday evening March 21st, 1905 under the auspices of the Undine Steam Fire engine company. Buy a ticket and in this way help the firemen along.

—A mission opened in the Catholic church of the Immaculate Conception, in Lock Haven, Sunday morning conducted by the Paulist Fathers of New York City, to which order, Fathers Kennedy and Devine, who closed such a successful mission in St. John's Catholic church at this place recently belong. This order is noted for its fine speakers and men of great educational ability and our Lock Haven brethren should not fail to give them a crowded church each evening.

—Three of the finest horses ever exhibited on our streets were to be seen Monday afternoon In charge of their grooms they were led through the principal thoroughfares of the town. They were perfect beauties and all lovers of horse flesh simply went wild over them. One was a dapple gray and the other two were blacks. One of the black horses weighed 3160 lbs. They are owned by Hartman, the manufacturer of Peruna and come from his famous stock farm near Columbus, Ohio. They are kept at the Garman house stable.

—L. C. Bullock, agent for the "Sunlight Omega" Acetylene gas machines is preparing to light G. R. Spigelmyer's China store in Criders Exchange, with one of his machines. The machine can be seen on exhibition in one of the windows of Spigelmyer's store. It is a dandy and will light this room better than it was ever lighted before so they claim. Mr. Bullock is selling lots of these machines throughout the county and they always give the best of satisfaction, making a fine clear light at a small expense. In this issue you will find his announcement which it will pay you to read.

—Rev. Crawford L. Benscoter pastor of the Methodist church at Huntingdon is lying critically ill at his home in that place, On Wednesday last he regained consciousness, after lying in a comatose state for several days. The physicians attending him, after doing all in their power to relieve his suffering, have little hope of saving his life. In fact, they have notified Rev. Benscoter't family, all of whom are at his bedside, that his death is only a matter of a short time. This will be sad news to Rev. Benscoter's hundreds of friends in this vicinity and throughout the conference. He is regarded as one of the ablest ministers in the Methodist church, and by his kindness and gentleness has endeared himself to many warm friends.

—The several scenes of the four acts of "Quincy Adams Sawyer" the big rural drama which has recently been sent out from the Academy of Music in New York City, stamped by the crowded audiences of that theatre for five weeks as the best New England play ever seen there, consists of the interior of a grocery store and post office at Mason's Corner, an old-fashioned sitting room in the same town, the cross roads at Mason's Corner on the way to Eastborough, the Pettengill farm yard (where the famous bucking bee takes place), a snow storm outside of Pettengill's house and finally the cozy living room inside. This attraction will appear at Garman's opera house Wednesday evening March 22nd.

JOSEPH BEEZER.

Aged Resident of This Vicinity Passes Away.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Joseph Beezer, a highly respected resident of this vicinity, died at his home on the banks of Spring Creek near Roopsburg, of infirmities incident to old age. He had been ailing for several days and gradually and peacefully at the above named hour he sank to rest.

Joseph Beezer was of German nativity and was born in Straesburg-on-the Rhine, Germany, October 15, 1842. In 1865 he came to this country remaining a year and returning to the old country but only for a short time when he again came to America locating permanently in Centre county. In 1867 he was married to Miss Katherine Kohler, also a native of Germany, and together they settled down on their farm at Roopsburg where they lived a quiet pastoral life. They have lived in the same location for 41 years. Two years 1886 and 87 they resided in Altoona with their daughter, but they did not like city life and returned to their quiet home at Roopsburg.

Joseph Beezer was a faithful member of St. John's Catholic church of this place and was regular in his attendance at the services. For many years past he has led a retired life. He was an excellent citizen, quiet un-obtrusive gentleman, a kind and loving husband and an affectionate and indulgent father.

Surviving him are his faithful wife, two sons, Louis, and Michael J., of Pittsburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Bertram, of Altoona.

He also leaves a brother and sister in the old country, John Beezer and Mrs. Catherine Batt.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's Catholic church. Interment in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

Sudden Death of Mr. William Barr.

Mr. William Barr, of Sandy Ridge, died suddenly on Saturday morning, March 11, of heart failure. He has been employed by the Sandy Ridge Fire Brick Co. for several years and on Saturday morning he was at his post of duty as usual. About 9 o'clock, while talking to one of his fellow workmen, he sank to the ground unconscious. Several of the men soon reached his side, also his two sons who were at work, but the unseen messenger had already borne his spirit hence.

Deceased was born at McAlevey's Fort, Huntingdon Co., Pa., September 21, 1852, making his age at time of death 52 years, 2 months and 18 days. He is survived by his wife and seven children: Mrs. Alma Smith, of Sandy Ridge; Walter, Carl, Clyde, Meade, Maud and Frank, all at home. He has made his home in Sandy Ridge for seven years during which time he has been in the employ of the Sandy Ridge Fire Brick Co.

He is well known in the town of his adoption and being of a genial, pleasant disposition he made every one his friend. He was a kind husband and a loving father and his sudden and untimely death will be sadly mourned both in the home circle and in the community in which he lived.

Funeral services were held at his late residence on Monday afternoon conducted by the Rev. M. Williams, pastor of the M. E. church. Interment at McAlevey's Fort, Pa.

John Heverly Dead.

John Heverly, a well known citizen, of Howard, died at his home in that place Friday evening at 11 o'clock of neuralgia of the heart. He had been ill but a few days.

The deceased was born in Howard township and had been a resident of Howard almost all his life. During the civil war he served his country faithfully as a member of Co A 45th Pennsylvania Volunteers.

He was a blacksmith by trade and followed that business most of his life. He was a member of the Disciple church, is married and leaves a wife and several children.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers were recorded during the past week by Recorder J. C. Rowe.

Thomas J. Bechdel et ux, to Chas. Hachel ut ux, Feb. 28, 1905, 187 acres in Liberty Twp. Consideration $1800.

Chas. T. Fryberger to Wm. Dempleton lot in Rush Twp. Consideration $725.

Sad Death of a Child.

On Saturday evening at 10 o'clock Ruth, the five year old daughter of telegraph operator John H. Wilson, died at her parent's home on Phoenix street of membraneous croup. The little one who was a very bright and affectionate as well as intelligent little girl had been ill only one week. Her death was a sad blow to her bereaved parents. As the disease with which she died is contagious they were compelled to bury her Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

Ruth Wilson was born in Bellefonte and was the daughter of John H., and Minnie Wilson. She is survived by her parents and one sister, Jeanette.

The family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in their very sad affliction.

LETTER FROM ROME.

Col. J. L. Spangler Writes Briefly About Ancient City.

Col. J. L. Spangler, now in Rome, Italy, recently wrote to his father, ex-Sheriff John Spangler, of Centre Hall and extracts were published in the Centre Reporter as follows:

I always dreamed, from my boyhood, that I would see old Rome. I had read about it, thought about it until I made up my mind that I would visit it. Here I am,

This old city was once the capital of the whole world. That was more than two thousand years ago. It might have continued the centre and capital of the world, but the leaders and politicians of that day became corrupt, extravagant and immoral, hence the empire went to pieces. Here then is a pile of ruins—one of the greatest buildings the world ever saw. Here palaces stand in ruins which covered, each of them, half a dozen towns like Centre Hall. Here one emperor built a bath house where two thousand people could bathe at one time. Another emporer built the Coloseum, or theatre, where eighty thousand people could be seated. When it was opened, about fifty years after Christ, 5000 wild animals were brought in and fought each other until they fell dead. In this building, for two hundred years, the early Christians were locked up and then turned into the centre of the ring like a circus and wild beasts turned on them and tore them to pieces. Can not tell you more. But this was the beginning of the Christian church. Nothing is left amid all this splendor but the Catholic church.

You wrote of the cattle and horses. The horses here are nothing, but the horned cattle are great. They have very wide horns. I wish I could bring a pair of them to you, but the freight would prevent it.

The more I see of the world the less I care for foreign lands, the more I love my own. Don't make any mistake; ours is the best country in the world. Our people are brighter, happier, live better, dress better, look better and are better in every way. To appreciate your own country you want to come here.

I go from here to old Germany. I hope to have a good time there. It is a live, wide-awake country.

ELI F, TOWNSEND.

Death at Philipsburg of a Prominent Centre County Citizen.

Eli F. Townsend, of Philipsburg, a prominent citizen and a Republican candidate for the legislature a few years ago, died at his home in Philipsburg Thursday morning at 9:30 of pneumonia.

The deceased was born at Warren, Ohio, on November 14, 1859, making his age 45 years, 3 months and 22 days. His parents both died when he was quite young. He was a studious, industrious young man, with a moral character back of him that won him the confidence and respect of everybody. In 1886 he graduated with high honors from the Reedsburg College, in Clarion county, from thence going to Lewisburg, where he studied for the Baptist ministry, but on account of trouble with his eyes gave up his hopes in that direction. He came to Philipsburg in the latter part of 1886, taking up the work of mine foreman, a position he filled up until the spring of 1904 when he successfully passed the examination for mine inspector, receiving the appointment for the eleventh district, with headquarters at Scottdale, a position he was filling when taken sick. He was a member of the Baptist church, and for seventeen years belonged to the Masonic fraternity. He was an active Republican, and served three years most efficiently as school director. He was a good citizen in every sense of the word, and a man of unimpeachable character. His death will be universally mourned.

In 1888 he was married to Miss Sarah Gray, a daughter of the late W. Y. Gray, by whom he is survived, together with five children—four boys and one girl—the eldest, the daughter, being 15 years of age and the youngest 5 years old. One brother and one sister, residing in Michigan, are also left to mourn his death.

A Narrow Escape.

On Wednesday evening as the members of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity were returning from Pine Grove Mills, where they had been entertained by the Rev. C. T. Aikens, one of the busses, driven by Wm. Hoy, was overturned and what might have been a very serious accident was narrowly averted. The buss, which contained nine men, was coming down a steep hill on the cross road about two miles west of State College, when the rear wheels slipped on the smooth ice. As one of the wheels struck a rut the vehicle was completely overturned and the occupants thrown out on the frozen ground. Although no one was seriously hurt, Prof. I. L. Foster, who was a member of the party, sustained a blow over the eye which, while causing a painful cut, did not injure the eye.—State College Times.

Mrs. John T. Tate.

Elizabeth, wife of John T. Tate, died Saturday morning at 1:30 o clock at her home near the Nittany furnace. Death was due to gangrene and diabetes combined from which she had been suffering for some time.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Isenburg, was the daughter of Edward and Margaret Isenburg and was born in Barre, Huntingdon county, 57 years ago. When but eighteen years of age she was united in marriage to John T. Tate, of Bellefonte. She early in life united with the Methodist church and was a faithful member and a sincere christian lady who was loved and admired by a large circle of friends.

Surviving her are her husband, John T. Tate, and the following children: Alfred, of Punxsutawney; R. G., of Big Run, Jefferson county; Edward, Walter and Anna, of Bellefonte.

She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Katherine Thomas, of Tyrone.

She was a very kind and loving wife and an affectionate mother. She shared very willingly all the blessings and hardships of life, and was always read with a cheerful countenance to try to brush aside any trouble that she met.

She has been deprived from church privileges on account of her health but she enjoyed many happy seasons at her home. She was a good christian and during her last sickness her faith grew strong and as the end drew near she would say "It is well." She was loved by all who knew her and will be missed by many.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house. The services were conducted by Rev. J. K Mumma of the Free Methodist church, assisted by Rev. W. B. Cox, of the Evangelical church.

Interment was made in Sunnyside cemetery.

James M. Shook.

James Milford Shook died at his home on South Allegheny St., on Sunday morning. Though he had been ailing for years his death was due directly to an attack of pneumonia, which culminated in death after an illness of only four days.

The deceased was a loving father and husband, a good citizen and a devout christian, dying triumphant in the faith of the God whom he served.

He was born in Lamar, Clinton Co., Mar. 17, 1852. He would, therefore, have been 53 years the coming Friday. His family consisted of 11 children two of whom preceded the father to the better world. He is survived by his wife, Sarah Jane, and the following children: Mrs. Harry Rhoads, Mrs. D. V. Steele, Mrs. L. R. Poorman, James Ambrose, Louella, Harry Elmer, Floyd M., Grace E. and Leonard M.

He was buried from his home on Tuesday; interment being made in the Union cemetery. The services, at 2:30 p. m., were conducted by Rev. Mumau, of the Free Methodist church.

The pall bearers were Edward Cain, H. S. Taylor, J. K. Johnston, Jacob Shirk, James Barnhart, and C. C. Shuey.

"A precious one from us has gone,
A voice, we loved, is still;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled."
